

Mentoring Success

Course Description:

Develop the skills for Mentorship Success. Mentorship is a unique relationship that helps others who are early on the path that the mentor has already traveled. This course will help those that want to mentor others, understand how to share their journey and be the wise guide to the Mentee on their journey.

Objectives:

After completing this course, participants will be capable of mentoring others to achieve success in developing the expertise and competencies of the Mentor.

- Understand the role of a “Mentor”
- Understand what Mentoring is.
- Learn the critical difference between Coaching and Mentoring.
- Develop “Intention” for the Mentorship relationship
- How to influence others towards positive change
- Draw upon your own experiences to guide others to success
- Unlock the hidden potential in others
- Learn how to help others think differently and think bigger
- Understand that you are a temporary “Traveling Companion” on your Mentees journey.
- Help others overcome challenges that strengthen and change them for the better.