

Team Synergy

Course Description:

Experience an engaging workshop for those who want to develop the skills necessary to create a synergistic team. Learn the dynamics and character traits that drive exceptional team synergy. This workshop will not only help you in your role at work, but also will help you in your personal life and relationships.

Course Objectives:

After completing this, team members and leaders will have the tools and deep understanding of how to work with others and achieve outstanding results.

- Learn the how to work with the various character styles people have..
- Understand the importance of diversity in personality styles and how to work with them.
- Learn the various communication styles and how you can leverage this information to create a great team environment.
- Understand why you may not be listened to and how you can capture others attention when you speak.
- Understand what drives behavior and how to create lasting change.
- Learn how you too can lead without a title.
- Understand the importance of increasing your Emotional Intelligence and how that will set you apart form others.

Team Synergy

Who should attend?:

Team members and leaders who are looking for cutting edge techniques they can incorporate into their daily activities to help create an environment that will result in creative, effective and peak-performing teams.

Why should you take this workshop?:

Understand other work styles

- The role different personality styles play in great teams
- Understand how to effectively influence the various communication styles
- Learn how to quickly resolve team conflict

Learn keys to effective communication

- Learn how to read non-verbal cues for better communication
- Learn how to give and receive effective feedback
- Understand and overcome the pitfalls of poor team communication

Learn what makes great teams so great

- Understand the key characteristics of successful teams
- Learn how to use Emotional Intelligence to enhance relationships
- Learn the secret to team chemistry

Learn how to lead without a title

- How to be positively persuasive so other buy into your ideas
- Ways to gain credibility and respect
- Learn how to motivate others
- Learn what makes people follow other and how to create that within yourself