

Awareness & Accountability

Description:

Where are YOU on the Accountability Ladder?

Do you make excuses? Are you a "blamer". Do you react or are you response-ABLE? The accountability ladder is a gauge for you to guide your actions and mindset. Discover how to move up the ladder to experience greater success and pleasure in life. Being aware of where you are is essential to your success.

Objectives:

Most people function at a very low level of awareness. Rather than being aware of their circumstances, they are controlled by the. When we begin to raise our awareness, we begin to take control of our lives.

We stop blaming and start taking responsibility and control.

- Learn the Seven Levels of Awareness
- Understand what level you may be on and how to climb to higher levels
- Learn why "The Masses" are usually wrong
- Redirect your life intentionally
- Learn what each rung of the Accountability Ladder looks like
- Understand the mindset necessary to climb up "The Accountability Ladder"

Awareness & Accountability

Who should attend?:

Do you let the circumstances of the day determine your days outcome? If so, you are not alone. Most people are guided by the days events. The day is either controlling you, or you are controlling the day. If you want to take more control of your day, this class is for you!

Why should you take this class?:

Increasing your awareness was not taught in school. Unfortunately we were programmed to conform rather than control. This has caused most people to blame or make excuses for not living the way they want to live. When you raise your awareness and climb the Accountability Ladder, your life will improve.

- Do you find yourself just going through the motions daily?
- Do you feel like you have no control?
- Are you conforming to the common phrase “Its always been this way”?
- Do you feel like your are on autopilot most of the day?
- Do you want to have more ownership