

Leading in a Virtual Environment

Course Description:

Leading Virtual Teams can be challenging when leaders have been conditioned to interact in person in the past. Most leaders enjoy the connection they make with their teams. They are able to motivate and inspire them to be their best and achieve individual, departmental and organizational goals. With the disconnect of a Virtual Environment, leaders can still make these meaningful connections, keep their team motivated and create a culture of productivity and accountability

Course Objectives:

After completing this, managers, supervisors and team leaders will have the tools and deep understanding of how to get the most out of their teams remotely. Managers must think differently when leading virtual teams.

- Communicate effectively with remote workers
- Lead, coach and support team members virtually
- Understand the job from a remote workers perspective
- Learn how to effectively manage Virtual Meetings
- Understand the myths of remote workers and management
- Create an environment for success
- Learn how to create a culture of accountability
- Eliminate the causes of poor performance
- Build connections through communication
- Create Team Synergy despite geography
- Keep your team motivated and engaged