Leading With Executive Presence

Course Description:

How would you like to be viewed as a Leader who inspires others to be the "Best Version" of themselves? Great leaders create a "Leadership Presence" that inspires, motivates and influences others to higher levels of performance. Leading with executive presence creates extraordinary connection with followers. Executive presence is inspiring rather than dictating. Leaders with executive presence leave a lasting positive impact on others, not just by what they do, but more importantly by who they are. Attend this class and you will develop a "Leadership Presence" that will positively impact others.
